The Standard Oil Combination bill has left the House. And there it left behind it the smell of kerosene.

Rojestvensky may be leading a for-lorn hope, but he has his enemies de-cidedly anxious over where he will turn up next.

If the Standard Oil crowd has offcially announced that it does not knew Tom Lawson it can at least plead guilty to having heard tell of the men.

Only the people who enjoy and pro-mote factional religion wonder why it is the religious spirit of the Catholic Church has such a hold on mankit.d. Should Christ come to Honlule it to

Representatives of the United States Government have formally seeded that frogs' legs are not turkey. Thank God that's settled without threaten ing the Constitution.

The reputation of Standard Oil operations are so well known that one can readily understand why the repre sentative of a Standard Oil combination should judge others by himself.

Seeing that Governor Carter um pired the legislative baseball game Chief Justice Frear ought to be good enough to act as referee for strenuou life in the precincts of the Judiciary building.
